

World Friendship Games 2024 Reference policy

When using official information and quoting statements of Games participants and representatives, the finished materials must contain a reference to the World Friendship Games 2024 and the source of the information received, or contain a link to the Games official website if the information is taken from the Games website. The copied (or quoted) information may not be changed, added to or distorted in any way.

- “Print media/radio” means any programme made or interview held during the preparations for, holding of or follow-up of the World Friendship Games 2024 must contain a reference to the Games (text or emblem/logo).
- “Television” means any programme made or interview held during the preparations for, holding or follow-up of the World Friendship Games 2024 must contain a reference to the Games (text or emblem/logo).
- “Internet publications” means any article written or interview held during the preparations for, holding or follow-up of the Friendship Games 2024 must contain a reference to the Games (text or emblem/logo).
- “Photos” means any photo released must include a reference to the World Friendship Games 2024 (emblem/logo).
- “Blogs / social networks” means ready-made materials published on the Internet when using official information obtained as part of participation in the World Friendship Games 2024 and quoting statements of participants and representatives of the World Friendship Games 2024 (quoting Games participants should be done with their personal consent).

The Games organisers are not responsible for statements made by Games participants in the blogosphere and social media.

ANO “Organising Committee “World Friendship Games” declares that it has the right to use the text of articles, photos and videos received or created by Media representatives or bloggers during the preparation and holding of the Games, with reference to the source that published the information.